01 — YOUR ROLE AS COMMITTEE DIRECTOR

You preside over the committee. You are not a delegate and must not represent a country, support a political position, or negotiate as a national representative.

• Open and close committee sessions; recognise delegates.

• Manage the General Speakers' List and caucuses.

• Receive motions and procedural points; maintain order.

• Supervise working papers, draft resolutions, amendments, and voting.

• Ensure fair participation and remain neutral.

02 — YOUR ASSISTANT COMMITTEE DIRECTOR

• Take attendance during both roll calls.

• Maintain the GSL and record speakers.

• Operate the timer and provide discreet warnings.

• Record motions, points, document submissions, amendments, and outcomes.

• Count votes and independently verify totals.

• Maintain attendance, document, and voting records.

CD	ACD
Speaks and presides	Records and documents
Recognises delegates	Maintains speaker list
Rules on procedure	Records motions and points
Announces voting and results	Counts and verifies votes

Agree on simple signals before committee starts: one finger for one minute remaining, a flat hand for time nearly finished, and a written note for an urgent issue.

03 — TERMINOLOGY AND RULES

Term	Meaning
Delegate / Placard	Country representative / country name card raised to be recognised.
Agenda	Official topic under discussion.
GSL	Formal list of delegates wishing to speak.
Moderated Caucus	Focused formal discussion with short recognised speeches.
Unmoderated Caucus	Informal negotiation and collaboration period.
Motion / Point	Formal proposal for an activity / procedural request or concern.

Term	Meaning
Working Paper	Informal document containing ideas and proposed solutions.
Draft Resolution	Formal proposal submitted for committee consideration.
Sponsor / Signatory	Principal author or supporter / delegate supporting submission or discussion.
Amendment	Proposed addition, modification, or deletion to a draft resolution.
Quorum	Minimum attendance required for specified committee business.

Before committee, confirm: quorum; meaning of Present and Present and Voting; speaking time; GSL procedure; caucus duration; motion seconds and precedence; points that may interrupt; document requirements; amendment process; voting method, majority, abstentions, tie procedure; suspension and adjournment rules.

IMPORTANT
Never invent a rule. If unsure, pause, consult the official RoP, and ask the Secretary-General or conference supervisor.

04 — 9:30–9:40 OPENING AND ROLL CALL

9:30–9:33 — Opening speech

CD SCRIPT
Honourable delegates, distinguished representatives, respected faculty members, and members of the Executive Board, a very good morning to everyone. It is my pleasure to welcome you all to the United Nations General Assembly. Today, we gather as representatives of different nations, each carrying the responsibility of presenting the interests, concerns, and perspectives of the country they represent. The United Nations is built upon cooperation, diplomacy, mutual understanding, and peaceful dialogue. Throughout this committee, you will have the opportunity to express your country's position, listen to different perspectives, negotiate with fellow delegates, and work towards practical solutions. I encourage every delegate to participate actively, remain respectful, support their arguments with reasoning, and remember that diplomacy is not simply about defending a position; it is also about finding common ground despite differences. As your Committee Director, my responsibility is to ensure that this committee functions in an orderly, fair, and professional manner. My Assistant Committee Director and I will facilitate the proceedings and ensure that every delegate receives a fair opportunity to participate. I hope today's session will be productive and engaging. Thank you, delegates.

9:33–9:35 — Executive Board introduction

CD SCRIPT
Before we formally begin, allow me to introduce the Executive Board. I am [YOUR NAME], serving as the Committee Director of the United Nations General Assembly. Alongside me is [ACD NAME], serving as the Assistant Committee Director. Together, we will facilitate debate, maintain procedural order, and ensure that proceedings remain fair and productive. I would now like to formally call this committee to order. I hereby call the United Nations General Assembly to order.

9:35–9:39 — Roll call

CD SCRIPT
We shall now proceed with the official roll call. When your country's name is announced, kindly raise your placard and respond clearly with either 'Present' or 'Present and Voting', in accordance with the committee's Rules of Procedure. Please keep your placards visible during roll call.

Call every country from the official delegate list. The ACD records each response. If a delegate does not respond, repeat once and follow the conference attendance procedure.

9:39–9:40 — Confirm attendance

CD SCRIPT
Thank you, delegates. The roll call has been completed. The Assistant Committee Director will confirm the attendance record and quorum. If quorum is confirmed: 'Quorum has been established, and the committee may proceed with its business.' If not: 'Quorum has not yet been established. We will proceed only with activities permitted under our Rules of Procedure.'

05 — 9:40–9:50 AGENDA INTRODUCTION AND RULES

CD SCRIPT
Honourable delegates, we shall now move towards the introduction of our agenda. Today's committee will be discussing: [INSERT OFFICIAL AGENDA TOPIC]. This agenda requires careful consideration, constructive debate, and cooperation among member states. Delegates are expected to represent their assigned countries accurately, remain within their foreign policy positions, and contribute meaningful ideas.

CD SCRIPT
We will begin with the General Speakers' List, followed by moderated caucuses for focused discussion. We will also have unmoderated caucuses for negotiation, collaboration, and preparation of working papers and draft resolutions. Later, we will move towards presentation, discussion, amendments, and voting. Please raise your placards whenever you wish to be recognised and do not speak without recognition from the Chair.

CD SCRIPT
With the agenda and basic procedural framework established, we shall now proceed to the General Speakers' List.

06 — 9:50–10:10 GENERAL SPEAKERS' LIST

Purpose: delegates explain their countries' positions on the agenda. The ACD records the list; you call delegates in order; each delegate speaks within the allotted time.

CD SCRIPT
Honourable delegates, the floor is now open for motions to open the General Speakers' List, if required under our Rules of Procedure. If the list is opened directly by the Chair under the conference procedure, delegates may now indicate their wish to be added.

CD SCRIPT
The Chair recognises the delegate of [COUNTRY]. You have [SPEAKING TIME] to address the committee.

TIME WARNING
Delegate, you have approximately [TIME] remaining.

TIME ENDED
Thank you, delegate. Your time has elapsed.

YIELD — ONLY IF PERMITTED
Would the delegate like to yield the remaining time to the Chair, to another delegate, or to questions, as permitted under the Rules of Procedure?

CD SCRIPT
The Chair observes that there are currently no additional delegates seeking the floor. We shall proceed in accordance with the Rules of Procedure regarding closure or continuation of the GSL.

CD SCRIPT
Thank you, delegates, for presenting your countries' initial positions. We shall now move towards our first moderated caucus.

07 — 10:10–10:50 MODERATED CAUCUSES 1 AND 2

A delegate proposes a topic, total duration, and individual speaking time. Example: 20 minutes on [SUBTOPIC], with 60 seconds per speaker. All details must comply with the RoP.

CD SCRIPT
Honourable delegates, the floor is now open for motions concerning the moderated caucus.

CD SCRIPT
Thank you, delegate. The motion has been noted. Are there any seconds for this motion?

CD SCRIPT
The motion for a moderated caucus on [SUBTOPIC], with a total duration of [DURATION] and an individual speaking time of [SPEAKING TIME], has passed. We shall now begin. The floor is open for delegates wishing to speak.

CD SCRIPT
The Chair recognises the delegate of [COUNTRY].

OFF-TOPIC
Delegate, I would kindly request that you remain relevant to the subtopic currently under discussion.

CD SCRIPT
Thank you, delegate. I encourage the committee to build upon the points already raised and introduce additional perspectives or practical proposals.

CD SCRIPT
Delegate, please maintain diplomatic language and direct your remarks towards the issue rather than making personal remarks.

CD SCRIPT
Thank you, delegates. The moderated caucus has concluded. We shall now proceed to the next scheduled session.

Possible subtopic categories: international cooperation; role of international organisations; humanitarian or economic consequences; national and regional approaches; implementation challenges; practical long-term solutions. Select only what fits the actual agenda.

08 — 10:50–11:50 UNMODERATED CAUCUS, BUFFER, TEA BREAK

During an unmoderated caucus, delegates may move around, negotiate, form blocs, share solutions, and prepare working papers. You do not recognise individual speeches.

CD SCRIPT
Honourable delegates, the floor is now open for motions concerning an unmoderated caucus.

CD SCRIPT
The motion for a 20-minute unmoderated caucus has passed. Delegates may now begin informal negotiations and collaborate with other member states. Use this time productively to identify common interests and develop practical solutions. The Executive Board will remain available for procedural clarification. The unmoderated caucus begins now.

TWO-MINUTE WARNING
Honourable delegates, you have two minutes remaining. Please begin concluding your discussions and return to your seats.

CD SCRIPT
The unmoderated caucus has now concluded. All delegates are requested to return to their seats.

BUFFER
Honourable delegates, we have reached the scheduled buffer period. Please remain attentive to any instructions from the Executive Board. We will resume according to the conference schedule.

TEA BREAK
Honourable delegates, we shall now take our scheduled tea break. The committee will resume at 11:50 AM. Please return to the committee room on time so that we may continue without unnecessary delay. Thank you.

Before leaving, confirm the ACD has attendance records, secure submitted documents, note the resumption time, and ensure the room is ready.

09 — 11:50–12:25 RESUME, ROLL CALL, MODERATED CAUCUS 3

CD SCRIPT
Honourable delegates, I hope everyone has had a pleasant break. May I request all delegates to take their seats so that we may resume proceedings. I hereby call the United Nations General Assembly back to order.

CD SCRIPT
We shall now conduct a second roll call to confirm attendance following the break. When your country's name is announced, kindly raise your placard and respond clearly with your attendance status.

CD SCRIPT
Thank you, delegates. The second roll call has been completed. The Assistant Committee Director will confirm the updated attendance record and quorum.

CD SCRIPT
Honourable delegates, the floor is now open for motions concerning our third moderated caucus. I encourage delegates to propose a focused topic that helps the committee move towards constructive and implementable solutions.

Possible subtopics: proposed international measures; national implementation strategies; financial and technical cooperation; monitoring and accountability; long-term policy recommendations.

CD SCRIPT
The motion for a moderated caucus on [SUBTOPIC], with a duration of [DURATION] and an individual speaking time of [SPEAKING TIME], has passed. The caucus is now in session. The Chair recognises the delegate of [COUNTRY].

CD SCRIPT
Could the delegate elaborate on how this proposal would be implemented?

CD SCRIPT
How does the delegation believe other member states could cooperate in this regard?

CD SCRIPT
Thank you, delegates. The third moderated caucus has concluded. We shall now move towards our second unmoderated caucus.

10 — 12:25–12:45 UNMODERATED CAUCUS 2

CD SCRIPT
Honourable delegates, the floor is now open for motions concerning an unmoderated caucus.

CD SCRIPT
The motion has passed. Delegates may now begin their negotiations. I encourage working groups to organise their ideas clearly and prepare working papers containing proposed solutions. Any formal document must follow the submission requirements of this conference. The unmoderated caucus begins now.

TWO-MINUTE WARNING
Delegates, you have two minutes remaining. Please begin finalising your discussions and return to your seats.

CD SCRIPT
The unmoderated caucus has concluded. All delegates are requested to return to their seats. We shall now move towards the preparation and consideration of working papers and draft resolutions.

11 — 12:45–1:15 WORKING PAPERS AND DRAFT RESOLUTIONS

Working Paper	Draft Resolution
Informal document containing a group's ideas and proposed solutions.	Formal document submitted for committee consideration; usually includes heading, agenda, sponsors, signatories, preambulatory clauses, and operative clauses.

Preambulatory clauses explain background, concerns, principles, and reasons for action. Examples: Recognising, Reaffirming, Concerned about, Noting with concern, Emphasising, Acknowledging, Recalling.

Operative clauses state what the committee proposes to do. Examples: Calls upon, Encourages, Recommends, Requests, Urges, Establishes, Supports, Invites.

CD SCRIPT
Honourable delegates, we have now entered the working paper and draft resolution preparation period. The objective is to transform ideas developed during debate and negotiations into clear, structured, practical proposals. Working groups are encouraged to organise their proposals and prepare working papers. Groups submitting draft resolutions must follow the official formatting and submission requirements. The Executive Board will review documents for procedural completeness before they are considered for presentation.

- Check the required format and relevance to the agenda.
- Check that clauses are clear and the document is complete and readable.
- Verify sponsor and signatory requirements under the RoP.
- Do not reject a document because you disagree with its political position.

IF DOCUMENT NEEDS CORRECTION
The Executive Board has identified formatting or procedural issues that need to be addressed before the document can be considered for presentation. The submitting delegates are requested to make the necessary corrections.

IF RECEIVED
The document has been received and will be processed according to the committee's document submission procedure.

CD SCRIPT
Thank you, delegates. The document preparation period has concluded. We shall now proceed to the presentation of eligible draft resolutions.

12 — 1:15–2:15 PRESENTATION, QUESTIONS, CONSULTATION

Draft resolution presentation

CD SCRIPT
Honourable delegates, we shall now begin the draft resolution presentation session. Eligible draft resolutions will be presented by their designated representatives. Each presenting delegation will have [PRESENTATION TIME] to explain the main objectives, key operative clauses, and intended impact. I request all delegates to listen carefully and maintain diplomatic decorum.

CD SCRIPT
The Chair now invites the designated representatives of Draft Resolution [NUMBER/TITLE] to present their document.

CD SCRIPT
Thank you to the presenting delegates. The committee has now heard the principal elements of Draft Resolution [NUMBER/TITLE].

IF NO ELIGIBLE DRAFT
The Executive Board has not received a draft resolution eligible for presentation at this stage. The committee will proceed according to the conference's instructions regarding further discussion or submission.

Questions and discussion

CD SCRIPT
Honourable delegates, the floor is now open for questions and discussion concerning the presented draft resolution. Delegates may raise relevant questions regarding proposed clauses, implementation mechanisms, and possible consequences, in accordance with our Rules of Procedure.

CD SCRIPT
The Chair recognises the delegate of [COUNTRY] for a question.

CD SCRIPT
Thank you, delegate. The presenting delegation may now respond.

Possible questions: How will the proposal be implemented? Which organisation will oversee the mechanism? How will it be financed? How will developing countries be supported? What happens if a member state does not comply? How will progress be monitored?

IF IRRELEVANT
The Chair requests that the question remain directly related to the draft resolution under discussion.

IF DISORDERLY
Honourable delegates, I remind everyone that this is a diplomatic discussion. Please address your remarks through the Chair and maintain respectful language.

Consultation of the whole

> CD SCRIPT
> Honourable delegates, we shall now move into consultation of the whole. This session provides an opportunity for all member states to reflect on the proposals, identify common ground, and discuss remaining concerns. I encourage constructive dialogue and possible compromises. The objective is to improve proposals and move towards a position that can receive meaningful consideration.

- Allow relevant discussion and constructive compromise.
- Give different groups an opportunity to express concerns.
- Ensure minority viewpoints are not ignored.
- Keep discussion on the agenda and do not tell delegates how to vote.

> CD SCRIPT
> Would any delegation like to comment on the proposed mechanism?

> CD SCRIPT
> Does any delegation have a concern regarding the implementation of this clause?

> CD SCRIPT
> Could the delegates identify a possible compromise?

> CD SCRIPT
> Thank you, delegates. Consultation of the whole has concluded. We shall now proceed to the amendment stage.

13 — 2:15–2:35 AMENDMENTS

An amendment is a formal proposal to add, modify, or remove part of a draft resolution. The conference rules determine submission, sponsor consent, debate, and voting.

> CD SCRIPT
> Honourable delegates, we shall now enter the amendment session. An amendment is a formal proposal to add, modify, or remove part of a draft resolution. Any delegate wishing to submit an amendment must follow the official submission procedure and clearly identify the proposed change. The Executive Board will review amendments for procedural eligibility.

Example: Original: ‘Encourages member states to increase international cooperation.’ Modified: ‘Encourages member states to increase international cooperation through voluntary information-sharing and technical assistance programmes.’

In some MUN procedures, a friendly amendment is accepted when all required sponsors consent. An amendment without the required consent may be treated as an unfriendly amendment and considered through debate and voting if the RoP provides for it. Do not assume every conference uses these categories.

- A delegate submits an amendment; the ACD records it.
- The Chair checks procedural eligibility.
- The applicable consent or voting procedure is followed.
- The result is recorded and the draft resolution is updated if adopted.

> IF INCOMPLETE
> The submitted amendment requires clarification or correction before it can be considered. The proposing delegation is requested to review the submission requirements.

IF PASSED
The amendment has passed in accordance with the applicable voting procedure. The draft resolution will be updated accordingly.

IF FAILED
The amendment has not received the required support and therefore has not been adopted.

CD SCRIPT
Thank you, delegates. The amendment period has concluded. We shall now proceed to the voting procedure.

14 — 2:35–2:55 VOTING PROCEDURE

IMPORTANT
Confirm the voting threshold, eligible voters, abstention rules, quorum, and voting method before starting. Never guess a result.

- Have the final draft resolution and all adopted amendments.
- Confirm eligible voting delegates and quorum.
- Confirm the required majority and whether abstentions are permitted.
- Prepare the voting sheet; have the ACD count and independently verify.

CD SCRIPT
Honourable delegates, we shall now enter the voting procedure. The committee will consider the eligible draft resolution in accordance with the Rules of Procedure. I request all delegates to remain seated and attentive. No delegate should interrupt the process except where the Rules of Procedure specifically permit it. The Assistant Committee Director will record the votes and verify the final count.

Voting options may include In Favour, Against, and Abstain. Some conferences distinguish delegates marked ‘Present’ from those marked ‘Present and Voting’. Under a common MUN system, delegates marked ‘Present and Voting’ cannot abstain in substantive voting. Confirm your own RoP.

CD SCRIPT
The Chair will now call for votes in favour of Draft Resolution [NUMBER]. Delegates voting in favour, please raise your placards.

CD SCRIPT
Delegates voting against, please raise your placards.

CD SCRIPT
Delegates wishing to abstain, please raise their placards, where abstentions are permitted.

Verify the number in favour, against, abstaining (if permitted), eligible voters, and whether the required threshold is achieved.

IF ADOPTED
Honourable delegates, the voting results have been verified. Draft Resolution [NUMBER] has received the required majority and is hereby adopted by the United Nations General Assembly committee. The committee’s decision will be recorded accordingly.

IF NOT ADOPTED
Honourable delegates, the voting results have been verified. Draft Resolution [NUMBER] has not received the required majority and has therefore not been adopted. The result will be recorded in the official committee record.

IF COUNT IS DISPUTED
The Chair requests a brief pause while the voting record is verified.

IMPORTANT
Do not announce adoption unless the verified count satisfies the applicable threshold. Do not assume a casting vote or special tie rule.

CD SCRIPT
Thank you, delegates. The voting procedure has concluded, and the result has been recorded.

15 — 2:55–3:30 CLOSING AND TRANSITION

CD SCRIPT
Honourable delegates, distinguished representatives, and respected members of the Executive Board, as we reach the conclusion of today's United Nations General Assembly session, I would like to thank each and every one of you for your participation, cooperation, and commitment. Throughout this committee, we have witnessed different national perspectives, constructive discussions, negotiations, and efforts to develop possible solutions. The purpose of diplomacy is not to eliminate differences of opinion. It is to create an environment in which those differences can be discussed respectfully and transformed into meaningful dialogue. I appreciate the effort demonstrated by delegates who actively contributed, presented proposals, negotiated, and engaged with the proceedings. I would also like to acknowledge my Assistant Committee Director and everyone who contributed to organising this session. Regardless of the final outcome, I hope this experience has strengthened your understanding of international relations, public speaking, negotiation, and cooperation. Thank you for your professionalism and participation.

CD SCRIPT
Before we conclude, I would like to confirm that all committee proceedings and records have been completed. The Assistant Committee Director will ensure that attendance, voting results, and relevant committee documents are properly recorded and submitted. There being no further business, and in accordance with the Rules of Procedure, I declare this session of the United Nations General Assembly adjourned. Thank you, delegates.

IMPORTANT
Use the formal adjournment motion or announcement required by your conference.

- Submit attendance and voting records.
- Collect draft resolutions and amendments.
- Return borrowed committee materials.
- Coordinate with the Secretary-General or conference organisers.
- Secure documents and follow further organiser instructions.

16 — MOTIONS: QUICK GUIDE

Moderated Caucus	'The floor is open for motions concerning a moderated caucus.'
Unmoderated Caucus	'The floor is open for motions concerning an unmoderated caucus.'
Extend Caucus	'The Chair has received a motion to extend the current caucus. It will be considered under the RoP.'
Introduce Draft Resolution	'The Chair has received a motion concerning introduction of Draft Resolution [NUMBER].'
Suspend Meeting	'The Chair has received a motion to suspend the meeting.'
Adjourn Meeting	'The Chair has received a motion to adjourn the meeting.'
Close Debate	'The Chair has received a motion to close debate.'

Motion	Chair response / handling
Enter Voting	‘The Chair has received a motion to enter voting procedure.’

MULTIPLE MOTIONS
The Chair has received multiple motions. They will be considered in the order of precedence established by the Rules of Procedure.

OUT OF ORDER
The motion is not in order at this stage of the proceedings.

IMPORTANT
Do not choose a motion merely because you saw it first. Apply official precedence and voting rules.

17 — POINTS: QUICK GUIDE

Point of Personal Privilege

Used for a personal difficulty affecting participation, such as not being able to hear.

CD SCRIPT
The Chair recognises the point. Certainly. The Chair requests the speaker to speak more clearly and audibly.

Point of Parliamentary Inquiry

Used to ask the Chair a procedural question.

CD SCRIPT
The Chair recognises the point. Please state your procedural question.

IF UNSURE
Thank you, delegate. The Chair will verify the relevant provision of the Rules of Procedure before providing a clarification.

Point of Order

Used when a delegate believes a procedural rule has been violated or incorrectly applied.

CD SCRIPT
The Chair recognises the point. Please state your procedural concern.

IF CHAIR MADE A MISTAKE
Thank you for bringing this to the Chair’s attention. The Chair acknowledges the procedural error and will correct the record accordingly.

Right of Reply

Used when a delegate believes their country or delegation has been directly and inappropriately insulted or attacked. It is not a general right to answer every disagreement.

CD SCRIPT
The Chair has received a request for a Right of Reply. The request will be considered according to the Rules of Procedure.

IF GRANTED
The Chair grants the Right of Reply to the delegation of [COUNTRY]. The delegate may proceed within the permitted time.

IF NOT GRANTED
The request does not meet the applicable requirements for a Right of Reply and is therefore not granted.

IMPORTANT
Some points can interrupt a speaker and others cannot. A parliamentary inquiry is normally not a reason to interrupt a substantive speech. Apply the RoP.

18 — DIFFICULT SITUATIONS

Nobody raises a placard

The Chair observes that no delegates are currently seeking the floor. Delegates are encouraged to participate. Wait briefly, then follow the rules for ending or transitioning.

Everyone raises placards

The Chair appreciates the enthusiasm of the committee. Delegates will be recognised in an orderly manner. Select speakers fairly.

Delegate speaks too long

Delegate, your allotted speaking time has elapsed. Kindly conclude your remarks.

Delegate speaks without recognition

The delegate is kindly reminded that all remarks must be made after recognition by the Chair.

Delegates shout

Honourable delegates, the Chair requests order. All remarks must be addressed through the Chair. Please maintain diplomatic language.

Insulting remark

The delegate is reminded to maintain diplomatic decorum and address the issue rather than making personal remarks.

Direct argument

Delegates, please address all remarks through the Chair. All disagreements must remain respectful.

Question you cannot answer

Thank you for your question. The Chair would like to verify the relevant procedural provision before providing an accurate response.

Ruling is challenged

The Chair has noted the concern. The ruling has been made in accordance with the applicable Rules of Procedure. Use any challenge procedure the RoP provides.

Document has formatting issues

The Executive Board has identified formatting issues. The submitting delegates are requested to make the required corrections before resubmission.

No working paper

The Executive Board has not received a working paper for consideration at this stage. The committee will continue according to the schedule.

No draft resolution

The committee has not received an eligible draft resolution. We will consult conference procedure and proceed with permitted discussion or submission opportunities.

No resolution passes

The voting results have been verified. No draft resolution has received the required majority. The committee's voting record will reflect this outcome.

Schedule is late

The Executive Board will manage remaining sessions in coordination with organisers. Adjustments remain subject to the Rules of Procedure.

ACD makes counting mistake

The Chair requests a brief pause while the voting record is verified. Recount and check the eligible voting list.

Delegate requests extra time

The Chair has noted the request. Any extension must be considered under the Rules of Procedure.

Delegate leaves room

The ACD updates the attendance record if required. Apply attendance rules without publicly embarrassing the delegate.

Asked which country is right

The Executive Board remains impartial and does not endorse individual national positions.

Asked whether resolution will pass

The outcome will be determined by the committee through the official voting procedure. The Executive Board cannot predict or influence it.

You announce wrong procedure

The Chair would like to correct the previous announcement. The correct procedure is [CORRECT PROCEDURE], as provided under the Rules of Procedure.

19 — IF YOU GET CONFUSED: EMERGENCY RECOVERY

IMPORTANT
You do not need to know every answer immediately. You need to know how to pause, verify, and continue correctly.

• PAUSE. Do not rush into an announcement.

• Ask your ACD: What session are we in? What was the last motion? Who is next? How much time remains? What documents or votes are recorded?

• Check the relevant rule in the official RoP.

• If still unclear, ask the Secretary-General or conference supervisor.

• Announce only the verified decision.

PAUSE
Honourable delegates, the Chair requests a brief moment while the procedural record is verified.

RESUME
Thank you for your patience. The Chair has verified the relevant procedure and we shall now proceed accordingly.

IF YOU FORGET WHAT COMES NEXT
Honourable delegates, we shall now proceed to the next item on the official committee schedule.

> IF YOU FORGET A COUNTRY
> The Chair requests the delegate to kindly repeat their country's name.

> IF YOU FORGET MOTION DETAILS
> The Chair requests the proposing delegate to restate the motion clearly, including its duration, topic, and speaking time where applicable.

> IF YOU DO NOT KNOW WHETHER A MOTION PASSED
> The Chair will verify the motion's procedural status before announcing the next step.

Speak slowly. Keep your schedule and Rules of Procedure visible. Let your ACD handle records. Do not argue with delegates, rush voting, or compromise neutrality.

20 — FINAL QUICK PHRASES

Situation	Phrase
Restore order	Honourable delegates, the Chair requests order.
Get attention	May I have the committee's attention, please?
Recognise	The Chair recognises the delegate of [COUNTRY].
Give floor	The floor is yours, delegate. You may proceed.
End speech	Thank you, delegate. Your speaking time has elapsed.
Pause	One moment, delegate. The Chair requests a brief pause.
Verify	Please allow the Executive Board to verify this matter.
Transition	We shall now proceed to the next item on our schedule.
Resume	The committee is now back in session. I hereby call the committee back to order.
Motion passed	The motion has passed.
Motion failed	The motion has not received the required support and has therefore failed.
Amendment passed	The amendment has passed and will be incorporated according to the applicable procedure.
Amendment failed	The amendment has not received the required support and has not been adopted.
Resolution adopted	The draft resolution has received the required majority and is hereby adopted.
Resolution not adopted	The draft resolution has not received the required majority and is therefore not adopted.
Adjourn	There being no further business, the committee is adjourned in accordance with the Rules of Procedure.

21 — FINAL CD CHECKLIST

Before committee

• Read the complete RoP.

• Confirm agenda, delegate list, and country assignments.

• Coordinate with ACD; prepare attendance, GSL, motions, points, and voting sheets.

• Prepare timer and keep schedule accessible.

• Confirm voting and amendment procedures.

Opening

• Welcome delegates and introduce the Executive Board.

• Call committee to order; conduct roll call; confirm quorum.

Debate

• Maintain GSL; recognise delegates fairly; monitor time.

• Handle motions and points correctly; maintain decorum and relevance.

Caucuses

• Confirm motion, topic, duration, and speaking time.

• Announce start; monitor time; give warning when appropriate; announce conclusion.

Documents

• Receive working papers and draft resolutions.

• Check format and sponsor/signatory requirements; record submissions.

Amendments

• Receive and check amendments.

• Follow sponsor-consent rules if applicable; process and record result.

Voting

• Confirm quorum, eligible voters, and threshold.

• Conduct vote; have ACD count and verify; announce accurate result.

Before leaving

• Complete attendance and voting records.

• Collect documents; submit committee record; coordinate with organisers.

IMPORTANT
Your job is not to make the committee look perfect. Your job is to make sure it is fair, organised, respectful, and procedurally correct. If delegates disagree, allow debate. If delegates become confused, clarify the procedure. If you become confused, pause and verify. If a document fails, record the result honestly. If a resolution does not pass, accept the committee's decision. If you make a mistake, correct it professionally.
